Red Sails In the Sunset

Nat King Cole

Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me
She sailed at the dawning, all day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset, I'm trusting in youSwift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And she goes sailing no moreRed sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to meSwift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And she goes sailing no more
