Heroes

Section A

The mission has failed and now your back is against the wall
Their treason has left you with nowhere left to hide
Get out of there
No second chance
Can't you see you're all betrayed
Don't look back
Don't turn around
There is no time to be afraidThey fooled you and you should know they're on a loosing war
They made you a scapegoat now you have lost the fight
Get out of there
No second chance
Can't you see you're all betrayed
Don't look back
Don't turn around
Haven't you been told there are no
Heroes
Standing at the front line always in control
Heroes
You will all be left behindThe picture inside your head has left an ugly scar
Black nightmares seems endless like some eternal war
Get out of there
No second chance
Can't you see you're all betrayed
Don't look back
Don't turn around
Haven't you been told there are no
Heroes
Standing at the front line always in control
Heroes
You will all be left behind
Heroes
Standing at the front line always in control
You will all be left behind
