Beep Song

Rotten Bark

i'm sitting here and wondering why our love just disappeared the feelings i' ve hold inside my heart seams like wasn't t real so i closed my chest to start things over again maybe the worst things could be right and it' s much more preasure when you know that it's not fine and than i cried (it's allright)

so please believe me that you were one and only that i dreamed about except the girls that i just met i know you feel so sad
i just don' t give a..

you said that you've never been so tired and our friendship felt so wrong i just can't forget our past when we were young and insecured but that was 3 fuckin' years ago and now it' s not our time to fresh it out and forget about those simple things that made you cry, it's not alright

you said you were never been so tired whatever

and out friendship is so wrong now
forget it
