Like Him

Seventh Wonder

Born into this world one day
The heir to a tyrant's reign of painIndoctrinate
To rule with hate
For the son to feel pride
By his father's sideForcefed views
Mental abuse
What goodness creates
He devastatesFrom the pits of darkness rises a light astray
Filling the void that terror employedChange came to the boy on a street
A girl dressed in rags taught him to seeThere is no escape
No passing of judgment
Your people are dying and so am IShe drew her final breath
And died in his arms and
He shouts out to the sky
I won't be like him
