Wide Open Road

Johnny Cash & The Tennessee Two

Well the drums rolled off in my forehead and the guns went off in my chest Remember carrying the baby for you Crying in the wildernessI lost track of my friends, I lost my kin
I cut them off as limbs
I drove out over the flatlands hunting down you and himThe sky was big and empty My chest filled to explode
I yelled my insides out at the sun
At the wide open road it's a wide open road, it's a wide open roadHow do you think it feels sleeping by yourself?
when the one you love, the one you love is with someone elseThen it's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
And now you can go any place that you ever wanted to go I wake up in the morning thinking I'm still by your side I reach out just to touch you then I realiseIt's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
