Less Than

Marriages

He comes up and
He comes and he will
He comes to show me loveHe comes for me here
He comes and he kills
But all is in the name of loveOn golden hills
On sleeping pills
I beg to learn the way aboveShow me love less than
Show me love less than
Show me love less than
Show me loveHe came in here
He showed me his will
He did until the day was done
He came to me
He came here to kill
He said I was the only oneOn my night meds
On my deathbed
I begged for him to be aboveShow me love less than
Show me love less than
Show me love less, love less, love lessDon't you say everything is alright
So far behind your eyes
I see every lie
In dreams I die, in dreams I die, in dreams I die
I dream of golden places
Our shining faces
Our endless waste
And your boundless taste
Show me love less then
Show me love less than
Show me love less than
Show me whenShow me when
These arms are open
Show me when
Those arms are openShow me love less than
Show me love less than
Show me love
