My Bleeding Victim

Communic

Where am I now?
Have I turned blind?
Broken down by the guilt
Of my killing handMy bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and praysThe morning rise the sky burns red
Sheets are soaked by unknown blood and soil
Memories burn, I crawl in pain
The scene I see is becoming more surrealBeyond the veil
Stalking my prey
Beyond control
I'm on my wayDrawn into the center of the weak
Madness flares within my angry mind
Alone in this maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deedsBeyond the veil
Stalking my prey
Beyond control
Unveil my painI feel the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
Heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soilI will return
Same face with a new mask
Trying to hide from the guilt
Of my killing handMy bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands andPrays while the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
A heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earth's hungry soilDrawn into the center of the weak
Madness flares within my angry mind
Alone in this maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deedsBeyond the veil
I'm on my way
Beyond control
Stalking my preyBeyond the veil
I'm on my way
Beyond control

Unveil my pain
