Got Me Wrong

Alpines

We're getting older, but not so much wiser building foundations, not getting higher running in circles, keeping all secrets hiding the beauty of all our feelings.You've hurt me once, but no more setting me up, for a fall
you've hurt me once, but no more.'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all)
figured out (out).
'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all) figured out (out).You're lifting me up and you're dropping me down watching the paces, doing around staying away 'till the early hours I'll do the same to feel in power.'Cause you've hurt me once, but no more setting me up, for a fall
you've hurt me once, but no more.'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all)
figured out (out).
'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all) figured out (out).You can pick all the pieces up one by one
you can pick all the pieces up under the sun
You can pick all the pieces up
when we're dome
you can pick all the pieces up'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all)
figured out (out).
'Cause you've got me wrong (wrong)
and you were so sure (sure)
that you've hurt me all (all) figured out (out).Figured out
you've got me wrong

Figured out
you've got me wrong
you've got mw wrong.
