The Pavement Laid

Shakhan

The Spirits moving through the land trying to bring everyone to hand.
The price now paid the pavement laid
Who will join us on the narrow way?Yes, those will wash in his blood
Stand under showers of his love
Will then go on above, to heaven.You know Im not a comedien Yet there I would be an alien.
There I wont go and settle in.
most likely stay in a nice cabin.Because I love Zion, home for me
From Gods throne, his decree
That his people with Him live in peace.
