Buried In The Sand

Duran Duran

Can't say that I was surprised
When you broke the ties
They were hanging by a thread
But now I have realized
It couldn't be the same
'Cause everything has changed
And still I held out my hand
Tried to pull you back
But you were buried in the sand
I'm glad that you came along
But here our journey ends
I say goodbye to you, my very dear friend
You were buried in the sand
You were buried in the sand
Half buried in the sand
Half buried in the sand
You were buried in the sand
You were buried in the sand
Half buried in the sand
Half buried in the sand
You were buried in
You were buried in
