Embraces parting hard steel surfaces reveling pages
Beneath the water skin broken like ice flows
Smashed by iron bows on the back of a whaleComma comma comma comma

Via satellite and solid state
Never never hesitate
Communicate communicate
Communicate communicate
Never never hesitateReaching leaning scratching vainly
Faces dancing locked lipped and between thigh secret
Briolette tears drip from frozen masks
As all those death row questions don't get askedComma comma comma comma

Via satellite and solid state
Never never hesitate
