What's He Gonna Say About Me

Point of Grace

Now and then I must admit I hide behind my shallowness
I must confess I don't begin to say enough
I'll tell you of my lessons learned but I may never quite express
That God has blessed me far beyond what I deserveI often miss the chance to show my faith in Him
By failing to convey what I have seen
And then I wonder while I face eternity
How Jesus ever finds a way to intercede for meWhat's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that I have done
Against the words that I have failed to speakWhat's He gonna say about me
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believedWhat's He gonna say about me
What's He gonna say
What's He gonna sayAfter this lifetime will come, the thankfulness that I forget
I will regret when I see clearly who He is Then I'll know all I should have said
So I must choose to not neglect
But resurrect the praise for all He is to meI often miss the chance to show my faith in Him
By failing to convey what I have seen
And then I wonder while I face eternity
How Jesus ever finds a way to intercede for me, ohWhat's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that I have done
Against the words that I have failed to speakWhat's He gonna say about me
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believedIf I confess Him before men
He will confess me before the Father in HeavenWhat's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that I have done
Against the words that I have failed to speakWhat's He gonna say about me
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believedWhat's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that I have done
Against the words that I have failed to speakWhat's He gonna say
What's He gonna say
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believed
What's He gonna sayWhat's He gonna say
What's He gonna say about me
What's He gonna say
What's He gonna say
What's He gonna sayWhat's He gonna say about me

What's He gonna say about me
What's He gonna say
What's He gonna say about meWhat's He gonna say
What's He gonna say
