

Supernova ft. Matt Persin

Matt Easton

I hear no sound
On mute while it all comes down
As I drift so gently one way
I'm absorbing what's all around

Picture slow motion
Planet explosions
These shooting stars right in front of my eyes wide open
Slowly tracing where they're going

As I pass the sun of a galaxy, swallowing everything it was giving heat
It's tough to see it take what it provided for
I sometimes take for granted what was given to me

Gazing at the horizons fall
With no space medical on call
Can't let your mind think about the negatives like
What the hell is gonna' happen to us all

No navigating this voyage
Watch supernovas destroying
Take mental shots of this moment
Notice what to take as an omen

As I watch all that matters erupt
And what seems unrealistic blows up
Have faith that you'll find what you're lookin' for
Even when you might think you don't know enough

[Chorus]

When your world explodes, feel there's nowhere to go
I'm watching that supernova
Nothin' below, nothin' above to hold
I'm caught in that supernova
Just look around, and beauty can be found
I'm watching that supernova
When it all comes down, know you'll be safe and sound
I'm caught in that supernova

No control but i'm fine though
Drifting through to new cosmos
No idea how time goes
So relaxing I might just doze

I could doze for months, whatever time means now
Floatin' around another universe soon
Staying away from whatever turns blue

Near collisions with comets
To me it's all harmonic
I feel explosions and violence
Are simply modern-day sonnets

My new world is supersonic
Hearing nothin', no phonics
Chronically wrecking tectonics
And there's no way I can stop it

Don't try to pick up the little pieces
Scattered around through the atmosphere
Instead focus on the overall meaning
The beautiful canvas that's here

Splitting of constellations
Ending this rock's rotations
Inhuman confrontation
Won't break my concentration

Intergalactic travel unraveling built up momentum
No gravity to pull me one way, I just watch the lit up spectrum

When it seems so bad
Like the universe is about to crash
Go ahead and relax
And watch these galaxies pass

[Chorus x2]

When your world explodes, feel there's nowhere to go
I'm watching that supernova
Nothin' below, nothin' above to hold
I'm caught in that supernova
Just look around, and beauty can be found
I'm watching that supernova
When it all comes down, know you'll be safe and sound

Iâ€™m caught in that supernova
