Sunset City

The Magnetic Fields

Well, I don't care what people say
Life is too short to hang around
So I stay so long in a place
And then move on to the next townOh, Sunset City
I've got to see the world
Don't hold me too tightly
Don't whisper my nameSad-eyed, baby
I'm not that kind of girl
When the dice stop rolling
There's no more to the gameWhen the time comes to say goodbyeAnd in the morning I'll be gone
For other towns and other lives
I'll catch the first train, bag in hand
And I won't miss you, and you won't cryOh, Sunset City
I've got to see the world
Don't hold me too tightly
Don't whisper my nameSad-eyed, baby
I'm not that kind of girl
When the dice stop rolling
There's no more to the gameWhen the time comes to say goodbyeOh, Sunset City
I've got to see the world
Don't hold me too tightly
Don't whisper my nameSad-eyed, baby
I'm not that kind of girl
When the dice stop rolling
There's no more to the game
