Nothing Lasts Forever

Upon This Dawning

Why did I believe when you told me?
Oh you, you, you
When you told me
All the things you said
All your fucking words mean nothing
Cause you're fighting for anything, for anything
Cause we are waves
And you're just a fuckin' boat, bitch
I'm not the last man
Your lies could destroy everything but usWhy did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
I'll be yours forever
Why did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
You left me to dieIf you told me that we're already dead
I wouldn't lie in this bed
Waiting for you, for you, oh
If you told me that we're already dead
I wouldn't lie in this bed
Lie in this bedWhy did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
I'll be yours forever
Why did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
You left me to dieI'll stand with all my friends
For what is right
You'll never change
What we areYou will never be stronger
Than what's keeping me grounded
You better leave me alone tonightWhy did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
I'll be yours forever
Why did I believe when you told me
"Just hold on, I'll be yours forever"?
You left me to dieWe are all the same
From the 1st to the fuckin' last
We're the same
I never thought I'd be alone in this fight
In the daylight and in the dark

I did this on my own
We're the same
I never thought I'd be alone tonight
In the daylight and in the dark
The stars are lighting up my path
We're the same
I did this on my own
From the 1st to the fuckin' last
We're the same
In the daylight and in the dark
We're the same
From the 1st to the fuckin' last
