Riding on Fire

Iron Savior

Dream the dream of a distant place
Sheltered and hidden from the human race
Long ago leaving everything behind
Out in the coldness to find peace of mind
Leaving ground destination is unknown
Into the darkness and far away from home
Will your dream come true and what will you find
When fate is your guide
Riding on fire - touching the sky
Riding on fire - take you up so high
Riding on fire - with tears in your eyes
Riding on fire - and your heart it dies
Holy wars and tyrannies
Death and destruction but no one can see
Sanctuary in a ship made out of steel
This deadly wounded world will not heal
Up to the stars to escape this living hell
Pain and oppression you're wishing all farewell
Will the tyrant survive 'til the day that you'll return
Let him burn
Riding on fire -...
Dreams where did they go
Reflections of thousand light years ago
Sadness and fear
Seems the end is near
Up to the stars to escape this living hell
Pain and oppression you're wishing all farewell
The tyrant will die on the day that I'll return he will burn
