Karate

Brad Paisley

She doesn't dare go in the place
With those bruises on her face
So she goes through the drive-through and keeps her sunglasses on
She didn't know when she married that man
She'd get to know him like the back of his hand
But now she's had enough
And the battle lines are drawn
He's in a bar chasin' Cuervo with Tecate
He doesn't know she's been taking Karate
The way she figures it, about July
She'll finally have the belt to match her eye
(Yah!)
She's on a mission as the months pass
Five days a week, never misses a class
Now she's up to breaking boards and concrete blocks
(Yah!)
He's in a bar chasin' Cuervo with Tecate
He doesn't know she's been taking Karate
Now here it is just about July
She's gonna get that belt (to match her eye)
(Yah!)
He stumbled through the door tonight
And started treatin' her up

Well she took one look at him and her training kicked in
And she finally had enough
(Charlie Daniels):
He threw a punch, she spun around
Grabbed his arm and put him on the ground
Grabbed a cuttin' board on his way down
And she kicked it in half
His knees hit the floor, shin hit a chair
Knocked out his tooth and it flew through the air
Grabbed his head by the back of his hair and slammed him into the fridge
She landed a left, a right, and then a left
She landed a roundhouse right in his chest
Then a scissor punch upside the head
Broke his nose, swept the leg

Started to fall, and on his way down she took him down - the lights went out
(Brad Paisley):
He's on the floor like he went a round with Rocky
He didn't know she'd been takin' Karate
A hundred bucks says tomorrow night
She's got a brand new belt to match his eye
He doesn't dare go in that place
With those bruises on his face
So he goes through the drive-through
With his sunglasses on

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/