

Living Better Now (feat. Rick Ross)

Jamie Foxx

I make you feel better than you ever been
I guarantee that you gon' tell the other man he need to get lost
And girl you know you dealing with a veteran, I'll beat that down
Have you ever been broke off? You ain't gotta pack your bags
Tell your boss you gon' miss work
Whatever you want, just ask
Baby, this what you deserve, yeah I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, better, better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, living better now
Living, living better now, living better now
(I know you deserve it) I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, living better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, better now
Drop top Benz I'm the man, girlfriend Yo, I'm the man
Yo, I'm the man
You rollin' with the man
Turn the lights out You ain't gotta trip about no money
'Cause whatever you want, I'ma get it, I ain't worry about the cost
I ain't fucking, I ain't phony, I ain't frontin', I ain't stuntin'
Everything I say is real, you dealin' with the boss, yeah You ain't gotta pack your bags
Tell your boss you gon' miss work
Whatever you want, just ask
Baby, this what you deserve, yeah I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, better, better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, living better now
Living, living better now, living better now
(I know you deserve it) I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, living better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, better now
Drop top Benz I'm the man, girlfriend Yo, I'm the man
Yo, I'm the man
You rollin' with the man
Turn the lights out Look in my pocket, I see a lot of dead people
Wrist game mean, mother pearl so evil
Christian Louboutin, sucker for a sneaker

Pull up in Pakistan like I'm Evel Knievel
Air raid Jackson, I stay spaced out
Never lay my Jesus piece face down
It's not a Rollie, I'm sorry this Vacheron
She not a singer, but dammit I made her hum
Name Ricky, but really I've been a Willy
See you looking at it but this watch a quarter milli'
I got houses, hobbies, homes in Abu Dhabi
Never go wrong GPS, my Ferrari
You ain't gotta pack your bags
Tell your boss you gon' miss work
Whatever you want, just ask
Baby, this what you deserve, yeah
I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, better, better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, living better now
Living, living better now, living better now
(I know you deserve it)
I'm living better now, living better now
I'm living better now, living better now
(Because girl you're worth it)
I'm living better now, better now
Drop top Benz I'm the man, girlfriend
Yo, I'm the man
Yo, I'm the man
(Because girl you're worth it)
You rollin' with the man
Turn the lights off
