New Noise

Cut That City!

Can I scream?
Yeah
We lack the motion to move to the new beat
Woah
We lack the motion to move to the new beatIt's here for us to admire if we can afford the beauty of it
If we can afford the luxury of turning our heads
Adjust the 1000 dollar smile and behold the creation of man
Great words won't cover ugly actions
Good frames won't save bad paintingsWe lack the motion to move to the new beat
Yeah
We lack motionWhen the day is over the doors are locked on us
Money buys the access and we can't pay the cost
How can we expect anyone to listen
If we're using the same old voice?
We need new noise, new art for the real peopleWe dance to all the wrong songs
We enjoy all the wrong moves
We dance to all the wrong songs
We're not leadingWe dance to all the wrong songs
We enjoy all the wrong moves
We dance to all the wrong songs
We're not, we're not, we're not
We're not, we're not, we're not leadingWe dance all the wrong songs
We enjoy all the wrong moves
We dance all the wrong songsWe dance all the wrong songs
We enjoy all the wrong moves
We dance all the wrong songsHere we goWe dance to all the wrong songs
We enjoy all the wrong moves
We dance to all the wrong songs
We're not leading, yeah, yeah, yeahThe new beat
The new beat
The new beat
