Too Pieces

Yaz

Write me a letter
A face in the hall
Hiding from someone
Afraid of the fallAnd she's waiting for someone
To take her back to where she came from
And she'll wait alone for hours
She won't mind because there's someoneIn the story she remembers
She remembers in the letter
And the tears locked up inside her
Make her heart break open widerAnd shuts her eyes and takes
The picture from the wall
