Numbskull

Peter Hope & Richard H. Kirk

Shooting from the hip, slipping from an iron grip
Going further than I've ever been
Into the realms of the unseen, fate is your enemy
Rebel against your destiny
Going further than I've ever been
Yeah, further than I've ever beenGot a beautiful face, go a fucked up inside
Need a shot of your faith, come along for the ride
Yeah, love is your faith
Yeah, death is your fateNever going to reach my goal
I know, 'cause I have been told
Never finding happiness, eternally in unrest
This is where the love lies, I've seen to the other side
It's always been just out of reach
Yeah, but always just within my sightGot a beautiful face got a fucked up inside
Need a shot of your faith, come along for the ride
Yeah, love is your faith
Yeah, death is your fate
Yeah, death is your fate, come along for the ride
Going further than I've ever beenGot a beautiful face got a fucked up inside
Need a shot of your faith, come along for the ride
Yeah, love is your faith, yeah, death is your fate
Yeah, death is your fate, come along for the rideGot a beautiful face got a fucked up inside
Need a shot of your faith, come along for the ride
Yeah, love is your faith, yeah, death is your fate
Need a shot of your faith, come along
