Believe Yourself

One Way System

Original sinners, blaspheme beginners,
In a mind's eye who lies within us
Body and soul open to receive,
There's two sides to every belief
Me, myself and all my brotherhood
Be yourself not misunderstoodBelieve yourself, don't give a fuck what they believe
Believe yourself, open mind so much to see
Believe yourself, number one ain't done much wrong
Believe yourself, the only way to beHim or hymn, do they listen in?
Should we stand, celebrate and sing?
People like me, are we so wrong,
Self-belief, a feeling so strong
Me, myself and all my brotherhood
Be yourself not misunderstoodBelieve yourself, don't give a fuck what they believe
Believe yourself, open mind so much to see
Believe yourself, number one ain't done much wrong
Believe yourself, the only way to beBelieve yourself, don't give a fuck what they believe
Believe yourself, open mind so much to see
Believe yourself, number one ain't done much wrong
Believe yourself, the only way to beBelieve yourself, don't give a fuck what they believe
Believe yourself, open mind so much to see
Believe yourself, number one ain't done much wrong
Believe yourself, the only way to be
