You Pulled Me Through

Jennifer Hudson

I was in the darkness, I was out in the cold
Seemed nothing could heal this, this hole in my soul
You reached out your arms to me, held out your heart to me
Pulled me back from the edge, thought I'd reached the endWhen I was drowning, when I was so confused
You, you, you pulled me through
I was in the shadows, lost, nothing left to lose
You, you, you pulled me throughYou gave my faith back, faith was so hard to find
You gave me my life back, you were my lifeline
The love that you gave me is love that has saved me
Your strength is what made me strong
You held me and I held onWhen I was drowning, when I was so confused
You, oh you, you pulled me through
I was in the shadows, lost, nothing left to lose
You, oh you, you pulled me throughOut of the dark into your arms, into the light
Your love saved my lifeWhen I was drowning, when I was so confused
You, oh you, you pulled me throughWhen I was drowning, when I was so confused
You, oh you, yeah you, you pulled me through
Oh, said you, oh you pulled me through
