Take On The World

Marilou

Well, I hate my writing
It's all the same
But it trips like posture
My head just hangsAnd I hate myself, man
But who's to blame?
I guess I'm just see-through
Window panesBecause if it's our way...To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'Something
SomethingI still hate my music
It's all the same
But it trips like posture
My head just hangsAnd I hate myself, man
But who's to blame?
I guess I'm just fucked up
Or too insaneBecause if it's our way...To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'
To take on the world
It would be somethin'Something
SomethingOooo Oooo Oooo Oooo
