Slowly Being Poisoned

Gehenna

awakening from dreams that are too real you know just how the killer feels tomorrows nightmare is haunting you a shield of terror you can't get through you keep denying your realityopen your eyes and you will see that you are chained and can't break free you are dying for a dead belief search you soul
find your hell trapped inside a human shell blessed with the will to killmurder flows through like a drug in your veins twisting your mind like a rasorsharp bladeno sanity no fucking will to be you kill yourself
smiling
you are dying
