He Needs Me

Bette Midler

He needs me He doesn't know it but he needs me And so no matter where he goes Though he doesn't care He knows I'm hereHe needs me I ought to leave him but he needs me I guess it isn't very bright Just to tag along But right or wrong, I'm here, I'm his And I'll be a friend or a lover Because my one ambition is To wake him and make him discoverHe needs me I've got to follow where he leads me Or else he'll never know that I need him Just as he needs meAnd I'll be a friend or a lover Because my one ambition is To wake him and make him discoverHe needs me I've got to follow where he leads me Or else he'll never know that I need him Just as he needs me
