Slave

Raudive

Here in this room, I'm a slave to your voice
Wait in the dark with a cold metal choice
Here in this room where desire will bleed
And no one can help you and no one but me
Here's something to remind you
Here's something to remind you
Do you remember the last time you cried?
Need I remind you how innocence lied?
Here in the dark you're a secret untold
A helpless obsession so perfectly cold
Here's something to remind you
Here's something to remind you
Here's something to remind you
Here's something to remind you
Cry for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
Beg for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
Cry for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
Beg for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
Scream for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
Pray for someone, something, I'll laugh at you
