Alive

Lost Atlanta

Burried in my confessions
I admit it I'm broken man.
Turning to unhealthy obsession
When will this madness end?
Too many lovers I've threw overboard
Now I'm left here and I'm all alone
I'm calling for help.
Will somebody stop me destroying myself.
Save me from myself.Losing grip of reality
And I'm living in my own hell.
Selfish actions I've done.
I hate the man I have become.
Drifting away from common sense
Not a thought of the consequence
I'm calling for help
Will someone get me out this hell?Hoping for shelter
I need you my brothers
Too close to the light
Will I make it out alive?
Help me recover.Day by day it casts over me
A fog of doubt and unertainity.
I live my life with no self esteem
When did I lose all my self believe.I can't take anymore.
Pick myself from off the floor
The world gave up on me
I feel the sickness I can't breathe.Hoping for shelter
I need you my brothers
Too close to the light
Will I make it out alive?
Help me recover.Dear brothers I need you now
I'm so sorry I let you down
Dear brothers I need you now
I am so lost and can't be found.
Can't be found.
Dear brothers I need you now
I'm so sorry I let you down
Dear brothers I need you now
I am so lost and can't be found.
