Dripping

Blonde Redhead

You were right, girl
You were art, you're dripping
For a girl you're superb
You're so thinIn your eyes and in your mind
I see change, it's a shame
Close your eyes, stalling the walk
You're alive, it's the sameCollect this song
In the blue light of May
For I found the one
No one knows, no one knowsCHORUS:
I saw you dripping sunlight
I saw you dripping moonlight
I saw you dripping sunlight
I saw you dripping moonlightCollect this song
In the glowing light of May
For I found the one
No one knows, no one knowsIn your eyes and in your mind
I see change, it's a shame
Close your eyes, stalling the walk
You're alive, it's the sameYou were right, girl
You were art, you're dripping
For a girl you're superb
You're so thinCHORUS:
I saw you dripping sunlight
I saw you dripping moonlight
I saw you dripping sunlight
I saw you dripping moonlight
