Dead Man Breathing

Hatebreed

Ive grown colder
Than any other stone turned
That any road crossed on my wayIve grown colder
Than earth under foot
The wind at my back
No scout or crookIve grown colder
Just like your father
And his father before
Through the endless stormIve grown colder
Than I ever was
Beyond my beliefs
Will this ever seize?Its begun, choose your home
You are no exception
I dont wanna be another dead man breathingCold!
Ive grown colder than I ever was before
Cold!
Now all I see are dead men breathingFor those who once rejoiced (Ive grown cold)
For those who fear and hated (Ive grown cold)
Who cant escape their grave (Ive grown cold)
Dont wanna be another dead man breathingIve grown colder
Than the mercy of whos looking down
Upon the silent graves of those who be wipsit
Ive grown colder
Than all those who wasted trust
Opening the gate without acknowledging the costIts begun, choose your home
You are no exception
Escape, now show yourselves a better man screaming
Its begun, looking down
Dont deny the instinct
I dont wanna be another dead man breathingDont wanna be another dead man breathing
Of course Ill fight til my eyes stop spinning out
Until my eyes stop spinningIts begun, choose your home
You are no exception
Escape, now show yourselves a better man screaming
Its begun, looking down
Dont deny the instinct
I dont wanna be another dead man breathing
