Born on Judgment Day

Helloween

My mother died close to me
And while I lie sobbin' here
This world's going down with fear
Armies of minions is all I see
Creatures in anguish no place to flee
Living their nightmares the fall from grace
And so I'm standing here[Chorus]
I was born on Judgment Day
And I have no words to say
Don't know good or bad
Kinda feel so sad
But, still, I sing this song for youThere's no one beside me
I'm shuddering wearily
Utterly destitute and all
Nobility has left mankind
Turned into vultures, bewildered eyesShoved to the abyss, a twisting whirl
Under the blood red sky
