Bouc Emissaire

A Perfect Murder

When you've done something that effects me
And the life I live
The hate in your eyes
Was all I could seeYour words ignite my hate
Your actions fuel my rageFor every mistake you've had ever made
I've always took the blame
And still the anger in your eyes
Was all I needed to seeYour words ignite my hate
Your actions fuel my rageYour words ignite my hate
Your actions fuel my rageYou've got no balls, no claim for actions
You've been through so many times
I took the blame for you
But not this timeNever again
Never again
Never again
Never again
