I'll Never Be Free

Van Morrison

Each time I hold somebody new
My arms go cold thinking of you
No one can take your place
Darling, in my embrace
I'll never be freeAnd when my lips burn with desire
No other kiss can put out the fire
Though I may try and try
No one can satisfy
This longing in meI'll never be free from your smile so tender
The sweet surrender in your eyes
I cannot be free when I remember
Oh, how you fill me with desireJust like a train tracks through my heart
Your love remains while we're apart
That kiss I gave to you
Made me a slave to you
I'll never be freeI'll never be free from your smile so tender
The sweet surrender in your eyes
I cannot be free when I remember
Oh, how you fill me with desireJust like a train track through my heart
Your love remains while we're apart
That kiss I gave to you
Made me a slave to you
I'll never be freeThat kiss I gave to you
Made me a slave to you
I'll never be free, free
