Falling Away

Cant you see that its more than a picture
More life than the oldest scripture
Man I tell you this life may miss ya
Play a role and it still may diss ya
For the obvious never felt closer
Till the day that you said its ova
My exposure became your closure
Woke you up like a fresh cup of FolgersI like it any way (anyway) I do it anyway
Theres really nothing that I really can say, yeah
Im always on the line Im always on the grind
Im always drifting away yeaahIm feeling like Im falling away (yeah)
Im feeling like Im falling away
People stop and stare but I dont really care
Cuz Im not really here and youre not really there, there
(REPEAT)I might seem to flicker like a fire light unexpected
Rescue mission from my dark side
Sense swelling up inside realize my open eyes
Higher and higher I am the elevator girlOn the up and up and the way I go
Bringing the deposit wont stop no more
Never afraid to fully play the game
And Im bringing down the house and Im collecting
Greener grass on the other side cutting in pressure cant break my stride
This life is everything this is my anthemIm feeling like Im falling away (yeah)
Im feeling like Im falling away
People stop and stare but I dont really care
Cuz Im not really here and youre not really there, there
(REPEAT)When I close my eyes it still looks the same to me
Shooting high in the sky catching the twilight burning to my memory
I dont care I dont mind
But its okay and its alright
I dont care, I dont lie and its okay no0o
I dont care I dont mind

But its ok and its alright
I dont care and I dont lie
O0oIm feeling like Im falling away
Im feeling like Im falling away
People stop and stare but I dont really care
Cuz Im not really here and youre not really there, there (REPEAT)
