Welcome to Hell

Rhino Bucket

You've got me, right where you wanted
You've got me, where I started
Lovers, lovers, haters
Lovers, lovers, haters
You've got me, Where I wan't to beWelcome to hell, it's the place to be Welcome to hell, you've got a front row seatLong Nights fight, you know I really can't see Another long night, you're slowly killing me
Liquor, lies and lovers
Every single time
Sheriff, lawyer, doctor, it takes two to do this crimeWelcome to hell, it's the place to beJust you and me, make yourself comfortable, it's kind of a hot seatYeah, I know you're innocent, you did nothing wrong You're just Daddy's little angel, you're just a perfect little personYou can't use people, you can't lose people
You can't just treat them like trash
You can't just treat them like someone else's catWelcome to hell, it's the place to be Welcome to hell, you've got a front row seat
