Cry No More

Robin Thicke

i met the joker
and i stole the moon i raise the sunshine and i have been the fool and i have been laughed at and i have been lied to and i have been left alone, with no answers i dont cry, i dont cry no more girl i know you want this so i dont try, i dont try no more
so i dont lie, i dont lie no more
so i dont cry no morei took the picture and i faced the truth i lived a lifetime, a lifetime with you now i watch you fall asleep smiling and i lie awake but there's only so much that one man can takeooo so i dont cry, i dont cry no more
so i dont cry no moreoooOOooOo ooooOOOOOOooand i am a hero but im not made of steel and im not the smartest man but i know the deal and ill bleed for your lips if youll bleed for mine and i cant escape it cause i do love youooo so i dont cry, i dont cry no more

ooooooOOOOOOoogirl i know you want this so i dont cry, i dont cry no more
so i dont cry no more
