Echoes Of Death

Pestilence

Trapped inside my self-capsule
For a journey into an atmosphere
A darkened space, I'm floating in
Although I am not hereI've got a room, it's colored black
The trap I haven't chosen
I cannot think, my limbs, I can't move
Seems like they're frozenPeaceful existence
In a world above earthly life
I've been there in this paradise
Where all is calm and niceWalking in the other side
Can't tell the difference between day and night
Voices, I can hear hidden somewhere
But they're nearOut there in this universe
Imaginary world of fantasy
Am I dreaming?
But it seems so real to meHumanity denies death
Search for immortality
Melancholy desire
Can't become realityNo reason to fear death
We all will meet it anyway
A promised life in hereafter
As we will pass awayPeaceful existence
In a world above earthly life
I've been there in this paradise
Where all is calm and niceEchoes of death
Echoes of deathWalking in the other side
Can't tell the difference between day and night
Voices, I can hear hidden somewhere
But they're nearOut there in this universe
Imaginary world of fantasy
Am I dreaming?
But it seems so real to meTrapped inside my self-capsule
For a journey into an atmosphere
A darkened space, I'm floating in
Although I am not hereNo reason to fear death
We all will meet it anyway
A promised life in hereafter
As we will pass awayPeaceful existence
In a world above earthly life

I've been there in this paradise
Where all is calm and niceEchoes of death
Echoes of death
