Boiling Point

Red Omen

I sit alone and watch hypocrisy
I will fight
My frustrations ever building
Tensions rise
The air runs thick with hostility
Asking why
My thought are boiling and I'm full of rageI'm at the end
Patience run thin
I think I'll lose my mind
Taking no more
Your death I swore
They will not break my willI'll make this your darkest hour
Hate will rise
My force will devastates your power
Hear them cry
I vowed to cure my aggravation
Your demise
I'm coming forth to bring a world of painI'm at the end
Patience run thin
I think I'll lose my mind
Taking no more
Your death I swore
They will not break my willSatisfied eradication
Deed is done
Your spirit's dead and finally mine
Now you're gone
My sanity's a fixed condition
Not your pawn
Vindication written with your bloodI'm at the end
Patience run thin
I think I'll lose my mind
Taking no more
Your death I swore
They will not break my willBoiling Point
