Coconut Madam

Emily Loizeau

The postman thinks I killed my mama in the night
But she's just all curled up in a coconut
My mama's gone away in a coconut
She likes it better that I think she won't come up

I hate it when she goes in a coconut
It makes me feel I'm stuck in a coconut too

My mama she's a coconut madam my mama
Coconut

I say "please come back" she says "I won't do that"
It makes me feel I'm worthless a coconut
She knocks so hard sometimes I'm the coconut
That I can hear it scream when I sleep at night
I think my dreams are stuck in a coconut too

My mama she's a coconut madam my mama

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by LOIZEAU, EMILY
Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/