Scapegoat

Caffiends

I for one will say I haven't seen if all I know
The second chance for me
Was long ago so strange and still
I've had to think about
The world I took that brought me hereWho am I supposed to be?
I breath, I bleed, I'm here to show you all
My mistakes
It's right here beside youLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat
I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free
Look at me I'm a scapegoat
What will you do about it?Find a memory to look at life and understand that I can't stop what's supposed to be
But I can show you what it will take
If you would shut the fuck up and listenLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat
I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free
Look at me I'm the scapegoat
What will you do about it?Lie
ScapegoatLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat
I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free
Look at me I'm the scapegoat
What will you do about it?
About it, what will you do about it?Look at me I'm a scapegoat
What will you do about it?
