Heart Song

Mechanical Birds

Hey babe, I got my eye on you
Standing there on Beacon Avenue
I'm walking dead, yeah, I'll be shot down
Love at first sight ain't messing aroundYou take my hand, you lead me to dance
A Cinderella love story ends with a kiss
Lights go out and it's last call
Maybe next time I'll look before I fallAnd that's when you shot through my heart
Well, you had me right from the start
A critical shot to the heart
Now my whole world's falling apart
'Cause you shot me straight through the heartYour satisfaction, no guarantee
All I know is I feel you in me
I look around, this place is a mess
I feel the air through the holes in my dressNow it's so damn cold, here in my soul
And you'll never know how far I let you go
Downtown, love never lasts
And there's no way you can prepare for the pastAnd that's when you shot through my heart
Well, you had me right from the start
A critical shot to the heart
Now my whole world's falling apart
'Cause you shot me straight through the heartYou broke my heart and threw it on the floor
Saying, "I'm not gonna come back no more"
You broke my heart and threw it on the floor
Saying, "I'm not gonna come back no more"You broke my heart and threw it on the floor
Saying, "I'm not gonna come back no more"
You broke my heart and threw it on the floor
Saying, "I'm not gonna come back no more"And that's when you shot through my heart
Well, you had me right from the start
A critical shot to the heart
Now my whole world's falling apart
'Cause you shot me straight through the heart
