Sunrise

The Cataracts (Feat. DEV)

I gotta hold on as these days go by
I keep on falling, you walk away
I gave you everything that I had to give
Made my sacrifice but you won't let me live
Love is so green in a beautiful kind of way
You've got me wrapped around your prison ball and chain
I gotta hold on as all these days go by
Hold on baby, yeah
'Cause I'm falling and you keep on walking away
And I cannot see the sunrise, yeah
You can never tell which you're gonna be
'Cause you're so obsessed with your personalties
Love is so sick and you know God is love
You think you're something, something from above
I gotta hold on as all these days go by
Hold on baby, yeah
'Cause I'm falling and you keep on walking away
And I cannot see the sunrise
I gotta hold on as all these days go by
Hold on baby, yeah
'Cause I'm falling and you keep on walking away
And I cannot see the
I gotta hold on baby as the days go by
I keep falling and you keep on walking away
And I can't see the sunrise
