Tick Tock (Live Version)

Walking On Cars

Arms by my side, heart on my sleeve
The chandelier falls as I stand underneath
Won't you give it up this time?
Won't you give it up to save?
Watch this come alive
That was yesterdayTick tock
Ready
Holding
To put hope back on the shelf
Tick tock
Ready
Holding
To put hope back on the shelfThis is the last time
I stay up all night
Forget everything and I'm starting with you
I love you but I
I must say goodbye
Forget everything and I'm starting with youWhere do you run?
What can you lose?
You run from yourself but you're still stuck with you
Won't you give it up this time?
Won't you give it up to save?
Watch this come alive
That was yesterdayClock's got his hands in the air as I'm fallin'
The clock's got his hands in the air as I'm calling out
Clock's got his hands by his sides I'm still waiting
I'm still waiting
I'm still waitingTick tock
Ready
Holding
To put hope back on the shelfThis is the last time
I stay up all night
Forget everything and I'm starting with you
I love you but I
I must say goodbye
Forget everything and I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you

I'm starting with youForget everything and I'm starting with you
Forget everything and I'm starting with you
Forget everything and I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you, with you, with you
I'm starting with you
I'm starting with youTick tock
Ready
Holding
To put hope back on the shelf
