One Day

SWAGmusic

I look up and the hills seem far away
They still say more than you
And on my back I see these clouds above
They still love me more than you
And I know, I don't have to wait for words
I could walk away and listen to the birds
Listen to the birds
They don't sing the things I wanna hear
They don't change, they stay the same when I'm near
But I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one day
'Cause I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one day
And I don't never want to steal your time
'Cause you seem fine but I feel blue
I don't wanna say the things I do
'Cause I know, I feel it more than you
And I know, I don't have to wait for words
I could walk away and listen to the birds
Listen to the birds
'Cause they don't sing the things I wanna hear
They don't change, they stay the same when I'm near
I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one day
Well, I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one, just one, just one day
Oh, yeah, yeah
Well, I know, I don't have to wait for you
I could turn around and find somebody new Find somebody new, yeah
Someone that says the things I need to hear Doesn't change, someone stays the same when I'm near
I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one day
yes, I would dearly love to run away
From your shadow for just one day
Oh, oh, yeah, ah
Just one day
