Go On And Cry

O'Bryan

What goes around comes back around
Seems that's just the way heartache falls
I learned to live without you by my side
But I prayed for the day that you would call
So why don't you lie down beside me
Open your heart and confide in me?
Go on and cry, here's my shoulder
Why don't you try to imagine that I even care?
Go on and cry on my cold shoulder
Ooh, you left me so sad and you hurt me so bad
It's your turn to cry, cry, cry over me
You say you made a big mistake, yes you did
When you threw away the love I gave
Boy, I always knew you'd come 'round again
Looking for the love we made
Go on and cry, here's my shoulder
Why don't you try to imagine that I'd even care?
Go on and cry on my cold shoulder
Oh you left me so sad and you hurt me so bad
Your turn to cry, cry, cry
Sometimes love is overrated, yeah
It can be so hard to find a cure
And when a heartbreak is understated
It comes back around, I'm sure oh, oh, oh
Go on and cry, here's my shoulder, my shoulder
Why don't you try to imagine that I'd even care?
Go on and cry on my cold shoulder
Oh you, you left me so sad and you hurt me so bad
Your turn to cry, go on and cry over me, cry over me
