In Your Presence

Jeremy Camp

As I stand here in Your presence
Of Your beauty I will always stand in awe
I reach my hands out to the Heavens, yeah
And I lift my voice to You alone, to You alone
As I bow my head before You
I lay my burdens down at Your nail pierced feet
Every ounce of You radiates Your glory
With You I know that I'm complete, yeah
And I sing Hallelujah
You are my God, Maker of the Heavens
And Hallelujah, You are my Lord
I bow before Your presence
As I stand here in Your presence
Of Your beauty I will always stand in awe
I reach my hands out to the Heavens, yeah

And I lift my voice to You alone
And I sing Hallelujah
You are my God, Maker of the Heavens, yeah
Hallelujah, You the Lord of all, Maker of all the Heavens
I can only kneel before Your presence
All the nations praise Your holy name
You are the great I am, more than I can reason
I realize more that I am needing You
You are worthy, You are worthy Lord
You are worthy, You are worthy
You are mighty, You are mighty
You are mighty, You are holy
And You are mighty, You are holy
And You are mighty
