Regrets

Slick Shoes

As I stand here and wait for you, you don't know
How I feel, guess I'm too shy to let you know
My heart's in control, this time I know, everything will be okayI don't know what you would think
I don't know what to expectNo matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up
No matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up, I don't want to end with regretsI can't stop thinking of you
Can't get you out of my thoughts
Can't concentrate, I'm losing my head over a girlI know I'll always love you
I wish that you felt the sameNo matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up
No matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up, I don't want to end with regretsI don't know what you would think
I don't know what to expectNo matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up
No matter what happens, you will be my friend
I'm not going to mess this up, I don't want to end with regrets
