Life's Lessons

Summer Ashly

Oh how you knock me down hand me a map that turns me around leave me there empty my heart searching for more praying it leads me to an open open door where my eyes lead my feet should follow tracing the steps to find new legs to borrow

If these are life's lessons
I'm gonna take them in stride
or choose to be rubble after the tide cause i'd rather be rubble
then knowing inside when it's my turn to die
I lived my life
I never tried

Oh here we go again Another day over and another begins searching for my sold rock to stand when all other ground around is sinking sand where my heart leads my feet should follow stumble if I may I'll find the strength to face tomorrow

If these are life's lessons
then knowing inside when it's my turn to die
I lived my life

But I
I want to try and this life
this life is mine

Cause i'd rather be rubble
then knowing inside when it's my turn to die

I lived my life
I never tried

But I wanna try oh
I wanna try ohoh

I wanna try
