Sunset Strip

Idiotape

Sitting here on top of the world
I?ve got everything I ever need form this world
Oh, tonight
I got it right
Just one time
Cruising down the Sunset Strip
And there is nothing that?s not
That?s not within my grip
But tonight I can fly
I can fly, yeah
Look at me for the very last time
I?ve climbed so high
I?ve got no place left to climb
Man, I know no tomorrow
Oh, rock star, pop star
Everybody dies
All tomorrow?s parties
They have happened tonight
And I know that I won?t see tomorrow
Sitting on the Hollywood sign
Watching the girls get off the bus
Watching the danger in their eyes
And they leave with broken hearts
They?re shredded valentines
I came here from a dirty, dark street
There was no one there to protect me
To make the nightmares go away
It has to sparkle
It has to shine
So hollow
Look at me for the very last time
I?ve climbed so high
I?ve got no place left to climb
Man I know no tomorrow
Oh, rock star, pop star
Everybody dies
All tomorrow?s parties
They have happened tonight
And I know that I won?t see tomorrow

Turn off all the porno please
Been drowning here for days
Bad food, bad sex
Bad TV, Internet
Take all these stupid pills away
Flying down the Boulevard
I?m coming down so fast
I?m coming down so hard
And the doctor said
I can?t stop all those voices in your head
And I don?t sleep I never dream
And to shut them up
Now I just keep screaming
I run away, it?s the last time
It?s the last time
Look at me for the very last time
I?ve climbed so high
I?ve got no place left to climb
Now I know no tomorrow
Before the sparkle in my eyes turns to strychnine
While this beating heart is still a valentine
I?m gonna ride this thing until the wheels fall off
'Coz girls like me
We always get what we want
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Diamond hard promises and million dollar pills
All the nights we wasted in the Hollywood hills
'Coz we know we?re too good for tomorrow
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yesterday?s girl or tomorrow?s hot teens
Were you jerking off to her or were you jerking off to me?
And I know that I won?t know tomorrow
Yeah, you want my massive power
You want my throw-it-all-away
I?m throwing them out
It?s a wonder that you wait
Lawsuits, diamonds, guns 'n' rubies
Baby au revoir
You rock 'n' roll bitches
You can do what you want
You were made for me
And I was made for you
With the keys to the Bel-Air, the Chateau too
Your little sugar-coated world
It is rotten to the core

I didn?t know you were born without a soul
I?ve got voices screaming in my head
Are you jerking off in your bed?
It?s not punk, it?s not cool
It?s not even boring
And it?s not Eminem who?s gonna save me
It?s a real life they tried to steal my soul
I got pills when I?m famous
I got pills when you?re old
I got pills 'coz I?m blonde
I got pills 'coz you?re dead
I got pills 'coz I am the worst and best dressed
I got pills 'coz I feel more than 21
I got pills 'coz I know baby you?re not the one
I got pills for my coochie 'coz baby I?m sore
I got pills 'coz you?re fat
I got pills 'coz I?m bored
Cruising down the Sunset Strip
And there is nothing that?s not
That?s not within my grip
Oh, tonight I got it right
Just one time
