1,000 Lights (Album Version)

Javier Colon

Oh...
There's line, there's a road that we're walkin'
Different paths to the point where they're crossin'
But each step is one step closer to you
YeahAs the sun says goodbye in the distance
A thousand lights light the sky like they missed us
Like each one is lighting my way to you
YeahThis love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understandThis heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for usI'm gon' fight all my best when I'm with you
Some people shine like the sun when they see you
Ain't nothing better than holding your hand
That's what I was made to doEvery turn, every time that we just might break
When we're walking the line between love and hate
I can finally tune in out, choose love love loveThis love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understandThis heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for us(They shine shine)
They shine for us
(They shine shine)
They shine for us
(They shine shine)
They shine for usThis love is taking me overThis love is taking me over
It's making me feel something
That I don't understandThis heart it couldn't be faster
Tonight a thousand lights
They shine, shine for us
